In the case of such requisition, the following provisions apply:

85. Period of notice

- 85.1 Subject to the Act and this constitution where a specified number of days' notice or notice extending over any period is required to be given, the day of service is excluded, and the day that the notice expires is included.

88. Accidental omission to give notice

- 88.1 The accidental omission to give notice of any general meeting, or the non-receipt of the notice by any person entitled to receive notice of a general meeting under this constitution, does not invalidate the proceedings at or any resolution passed at the meeting.

89. Postponement of general meeting

- 89.1 The directors may postpone the holding of any general meeting whenever they see fit (other than a meeting requisitioned by members as provided by the Act) for not more than 42 days after the date that it was originally called.
- 89.2 Whenever any meeting is postponed (as distinct from being adjourned under rule 91.3 or rule 92.3) the same period of notice of the meeting must be given to persons entitled to receive notice of a meeting as if a new meeting were being called for the date that the original meeting is postponed.

90. Technology

- 90.1 The Company may hold a meeting of its members at 2 or more venues using any technology that gives the members as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate.

91. Quorum

- 91.1 The quorum for a meeting of the Company's members is 4 persons entitled to vote and the quorum must be present at all times during the meeting.
- 91.2 In determining whether a quorum is present, individuals attending as proxies, attorneys or body corporate representatives are counted. If an individual is attending both as a member and as a proxy, attorney or body corporate representative, the individual is counted only once.
- 91.3 If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time for the meeting set out in the notice of meeting:
- (1) where the meeting was called by the members or upon the requisition of members, the meeting is dissolved; or
 - (2) in any other case, the meeting is adjourned to the date, time and place the directors specify. If the directors do not specify 1 or more of those things, the meeting is adjourned to:

92.2 Where a general meeting is held and:

- (1) there is no president of the Company; or
- (2) the president is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act;

the vice-president of the Company if present presides as chair of the meeting or, if the vice-president is not present or is unwilling to act, the directors present may appoint 1 of their number to be chair of the meeting and in default of their doing so the members present may appoint any 1 of their number to be chair of the meeting.

92.3 The chair must adjourn a meeting of the Company's members if the members present with a majority of votes at the meeting agree or direct that the chair must do so.

93. Business at adjourned meetings

93.1 Only unfinished business is to be transacted at a meeting resumed after an adjournment.

PROXIES AND BODY CORPORATE REPRESENTATIVES94. Who can appoint a proxy

94.1 A member who is entitled to attend and cast a vote at a meeting of the Company's members may appoint an individual or a body corporate as the member's proxy to attend and vote for the member at the meeting. The proxy must be a member or a member's attorney.

95. Rights of proxies

95.1 A proxy appointed to attend and vote for a member has the same rights as the member:

- (1) to speak at the meeting;
- (2) to vote (but only to the extent allowed by the appointment); and
- (3) to join in a demand for a poll.

95.2 If a proxy is only for a single meeting it may be used at any postponement or adjournment of that meeting, unless the proxy states otherwise.

95.3 A proxy's authority to speak and vote for a member at a meeting is suspended while the member is present at the meeting.

95.4 A proxy may be revoked at any time by notice in writing to the Company.

96. When proxy form must be sent to all members

96.1 If the Company sends a member a proxy appointment form for a meeting or a list of persons willing to act as proxies at a meeting:

- (1) if the member requested the form or list – the Company must send the form or list to all members who ask for it and who are entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote at the meeting; or

- (2) otherwise – the Company must send the form or list to all its members entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote at the meeting.

97. Appointing a proxy

97.1 An appointment of a proxy is valid if it is signed or otherwise electronically authenticated (as referred to in regulation 2G.2.01 of the Corporations Regulations 2001 and in rules 97.2 and 97.3) by the member making the appointment and contains the following information:

- (1) the member's name, herd identifier and address;
- (2) the Company's name;
- (3) the proxy's name or the name of the office held by the proxy, the proxy's herd identifier; and
- (4) the meetings that the appointment may be used.

An appointment may be a standing one.

97.2 An electronically authenticated appointment of a proxy must in addition to rule 101.1:

- (1) include a method of identifying the member; and
- (2) include an indication of the member's approval of the information communicated.

97.3 If the electronically authenticated appointment of a proxy is done through either email or internet-based voting:

- (1) the member must be identified by personal details such as the member's name, personal address and date of birth; and
- (2) the member's approval must be communicated by a form of security protection (for example, the entering of a confidential identification number such as a shareholder registration number or holder identification number).

97.4 An undated appointment is taken to have been dated on the day it is given to the Company.

97.5 An appointment may specify the way the proxy is to vote on a particular resolution. If it does:

- (1) the proxy need not vote on a show of hands, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way;
- (2) if the proxy has 2 or more appointments that specify different ways to vote on the resolution – the proxy must not vote on a show of hands;
- (3) if the proxy is the chair – the proxy must vote on a poll, and must vote that way; and
- (4) if the proxy is not the chair – the proxy need not vote on a poll, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way.

If a proxy is also a member, this rule 97.5 does not affect the way that the person can cast any votes the person holds as a member.

97.6 An appointment does not have to be witnessed.

97.7 A later appointment revokes an earlier one if both appointments could not be validly exercised at the meeting.

98. Form of proxy sent out by Company

98.1 A form of proxy sent out by the Company may be in a form determined by the directors but must:

- (1) enable the member to specify the manner that the proxy must vote in respect of a particular resolution; and
 - (2) leave a blank for the member to fill in the name of the person primarily appointed as proxy.
- 98.2 The form may provide that if the member leaves it blank as to the person primarily appointed as proxy or if the person or persons named as proxy fails or fail to attend, the chair of the meeting is appointed proxy.
- 98.3 Despite rule 98.1 an instrument appointing a proxy may be in the following form or in a form that is as similar to the following form as the circumstances allow:

Australian Wagyu Association Limited

ACN 003 700 721.

I/We, _____ of _____, being a member/members of the abovenamed company, appoint _____ of _____ or, in his or her absence, _____ of _____ as my/our proxy to vote for me/us on my/our behalf at the *annual general/*general meeting of the company to be held on _____ and at any adjournment of that meeting.

99. Receipt of proxy documents

- 99.1 For an appointment of a proxy for a meeting of the Company's members to be effective, the following documents must be received by the Company at least 48 hours before the meeting:
- (1) the proxy's appointment; and
 - (2) if the appointment is signed or otherwise authenticated by the appointor's attorney – the authority under which the appointment was signed or authenticated or a certified copy of the authority.
- 99.2 If a meeting of the Company's members has been adjourned, an appointment and any authority received by the Company at least 48 hours before the resumption of the meeting are effective for the resumed part of the meeting.
- 99.3 The Company receives an appointment or authority:
- (1) when it is received at any of the following:
 - (a) the Company's registered office; or
 - (b) a place or electronic mail address specified for the purpose in the notice of meeting; or
 - (2) if the notice of meeting specifies other electronic means that a member may give the document – when the document given by those means is received by the Company and complies with rules 97.2 and 97.3.
- 99.4 An appointment of a proxy is ineffective if there is a requirement in the notice of meeting that:

- (a) the transmission be verified in a way specified in the notice; or
- (b) the proxy produce the appointment and authority (if any) at the meeting; and this requirement is not complied with.

100. Validity of proxy vote

100.1 A proxy who is not entitled to vote on a resolution as a member may vote as a proxy for another member who can vote if the appointment specifies the way the proxy is to vote on the resolution and the proxy votes that way.

100.2 A vote cast by a proxy is valid although, before the proxy votes:

- (1) the appointing member dies;
- (2) the member is mentally incapacitated;
- (3) the member revokes the proxy's appointment; or
- (4) the member revokes the authority under which the proxy was appointed by a 3rd party;

unless the Company receives written notice of that event before the start or resumption of the meeting at which the proxy votes.

101. Body corporate representative

101.1 A body corporate may appoint an individual as a representative to exercise all or any of the powers the body corporate may exercise:

- (1) at meetings of the Company's members;
- (2) at meetings of creditors or debenture holders;
- (3) relating to resolutions to be passed without meetings; or
- (4) in the capacity of a member's proxy appointed under rule 97.

The appointment may be a standing one.

101.2 The appointment may set out restrictions on the representative's powers. If the appointment is to be by reference to a position held, the appointment must identify the position.

101.3 A body corporate may appoint more than 1 representative but only 1 representative may exercise the body's powers at any one time.

101.4 Unless otherwise specified in the appointment, the representative may exercise, on the body corporate's behalf, all of the powers that the body could exercise at a meeting or in voting on a resolution.

102. Attorney of member

102.1 An attorney for a member may do whatever the member could do personally as a member, but if the attorney is to vote at a meeting of members or a class of members, the instrument conferring the power of attorney or a certified copy of it must be produced to the Company at least 48 hours before the meeting, in the same way as the appointment of a proxy.

VOTING AT MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

103. How a vote may be exercised

- 103.1 Subject to rules 104 and 105 at any general meeting of members, each full member and each honorary life member present has one vote on a show of hands and on a poll.
- 103.2 The vote may be exercised in person or by proxy, body corporate representative or attorney.

104. Voting disqualification

- 104.1 A member is not entitled to vote at a general meeting if:
- (1) the annual subscription of the member; or
 - (2) in the case of a person who is a nominated representative, the annual subscription of the corporate member for which he or she is the nominated representative;
- is more than one month in arrears at the date of the meeting or the postponed or adjourned meeting.

105. Objections to right to vote

- 105.1 A challenge to a right to vote at a meeting of members:
- (1) may only be made at the meeting; and
 - (2) must be determined by the chair, whose decision is final.
- 105.2 A vote not disallowed following the challenge is valid for all purposes.

106. How voting is carried out

- 106.1 On a show of hands, a declaration by the chair is conclusive evidence of the result. Neither the chair nor the minutes need to state the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against. Voting may be conducted by electronic voting (which is also a voting in writing / poll).
- 106.2 An entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number of the votes recorded in favour or against the resolution.
- 106.3 Unless otherwise required by this constitution or the Act, all resolutions of the Company are ordinary resolutions that are resolutions passed by more than 50% of the votes cast by members entitled to vote on the resolutions.
- 106.4 For electronic voting, the directors must be satisfied it is reasonably practical and secure. An electronic ballot, election or resolution is not invalidated by technical difficulties or lack of access to appropriate technology which prevents less than 5% of members who tried to cast their votes electronically, from successfully voting.
- 106.5 If technology failure for some or all of the voting members prevents a directors' election or vote in writing from being completed, the Chair may if they think necessary, adjourn the meeting, extend the voting period or hold a new voting period in a manner so that the Chair considers members have had a reasonable opportunity to vote.

107. Matters that a poll may be demanded for

- 107.1 A poll may be demanded on any resolution.

107.2 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

108. When a poll is effectively demanded

108.1 At a meeting of the Company's members, a poll may be demanded by:

- (1) at least 3 members entitled to vote on the resolution; or
- (2) the chair.

108.2 The poll may be demanded:

- (1) before a vote is taken;
- (2) before the voting results on a show of hands are declared; or
- (3) immediately after the voting results on a show of hands are declared.

109. When and how polls must be taken

109.1 A poll demanded on a matter other than the election of a chair or the question of an adjournment must be taken when and in the manner the chair directs.

109.2 A poll on the election of a chair or on the question of an adjournment must be taken immediately.

109.3 The demand for a poll does not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question that the poll has been demanded.

109.4 The result of the poll is the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

110. Chair's casting vote

110.1 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chair of the meeting has a casting vote in addition to any vote he or she may have in his or her capacity as a member or proxy.

110.2 The chair has a discretion both as to use of the casting vote and as to the way in that it is used.

112. Resolutions proposed by members

- 112.1 A member may not at any meeting move any resolution relating to special business unless:

- 120.3 Rules 117 and 118 do not limit the ways that the directors may authorise documents (including deeds) to be executed on behalf of the Company.

INADVERTENT OMISSIONS

121. Formalities omitted
